

INTEGRATED EVALUATION FOR PROGRAM IMPROVEMENT

STORY WORKSHEET: SECTION 1

Step 1: Think about a time when you made a positive impact through your work. How did or would have told someone about that success? Write a short paragraph. (There's an example below, but try not to look at the example until you've already come up with your idea for this first question.)

Answer:

Example:

Today I got a phone call from the principal (1) of a high school that I work in. She said that one of the young people who participants in my prevention program approached her about holding an event in the school to help promote healthy relationships (2). The student had a full proposal written (3), and the principal wanted to thank me (4) for my efforts.
