

Sexual Predators – Who, and How

PES 595 (1)

Preferred Offering: Summer One 6-10pm, May 10,11,12,and 13.

Instructor: Stephen M. Thompson

Course Objectives:

After attending the four sessions students will be able to:

1. Describe the differences between serial, spree and mass assaults.
2. Discuss theories regarding whether predators are born or developed.
3. List the different types of serial predators
4. Define method of operation and signature.
5. Describe the different core character classifications.
6. List the main characteristics of serial predators that attack children.
7. Describe the assault sequence.

Course Outline:

Session One

Introduction

Definitions

Discussion of why individuals commit these crimes.

Session Two

Assault Sequence

Character Classifications

Video Presentation

Session Three

Method of Operation vs. Signature

Organized vs. Disorganized

Mobility of Predator

Video Presentation

Session Four

Sadistic and Lust Offenders

Child Predators

Video Presentation

Textbook: None

Evaluation: Nightly Quizzes 25points each

Grade based on quiz score total.

Bibliography Attached