Start Here

Community Violence, Intimate Partner and Child Maltreatment

- Violence is preventable.
- Multiple forms of violence are interrelated.
- A violence prevention paradigm reflecting the interrelated nature of the problem and solutions has greater impact.

Linkages

Community Violence, Intimate Partner and Child Maltreatment

- Multiple forms of violence are
  - Share common underlying factors
  - Experienced together
  - Result in common outcomes
- Exposure to one form of violence increases risk of further victimization and engagement in violent behavior

Text Chat Question

What phrases or ideas stuck with you from our first session?

Prevention
and equity

Current Landscape

Community Violence, Intimate Partner and Child Maltreatment

- The historical players and unique expertise within each form of violence are different and can add value to an integrated, coordinated approach
- Response and intervention infrastructure is more developed than prevention infrastructure
- Societal perceptions about victims and perpetrators differ by forms of violence resulting in a bias toward the need for different types of solutions

Prevention
Institute
Prevention and equity at the center of community well-being

Current Landscape

Community Violence, Intimate Partner and Child Maltreatment

- Contextual and experiential evidence is essential to better understanding linkages between multiple forms of violence and developing prevention strategies
- Addressing multiple forms of violence has challenges that must be overcome
- Addressing multiple forms of violence would advance the field and the collective impact

Barriers to Address

From our first session

- Discomfort talking about isms and violence
- Working across forms of violence is “issue or vision creep”
- Seen as “taking over” someone else’s work

Can current trends provide new opportunities to build credibility?

Polling Question

Which barrier should we start with?

- A. Discomfort talking about isms and violence
- B. Working across forms of violence is “issue or vision creep”
- C. Seen as “taking over” someone else’s work
- D. Can current trends provide new opportunities to build credibility?

Polling Question

Which barrier should we address next?

- A. Discomfort talking about isms and violence
- B. Working across forms of violence is “issue or vision creep”
- C. Seen as “taking over” someone else’s work
- D. Can current trends provide new opportunities to build credibility?

Discomfort talking about isms and violence

How do we help partners who are uncomfortable talking about isms or violence be a part of prevention work?

Creeps?!

How can we make that case that working across forms of violence isn't "issue or vision creep"?

Tell Us What You See

Photovoice: Your Photos Tell The Story

Photovoice is a process by which people capture and record their life experiences and cultural experiences through photography and stories.

S “What is Seen here?” (Describe what the eye sees)

Heart and a condom

H “What is really Happening?” (The unseen “story” behind the image)

Just because you’re having sex doesn’t mean he loves you

O “How does this relate to Our lives?” (Or MY life personally)

People tell others they love them just to have sex with them

W “Why are things this way?”

Some people will say anything just to get sex

E “How could this image Educate people?”

Use life examples of what true love is and what isn’t love

D “What can I Do about it?” (What WILL I or WE do about it)
