

#PowerInPrevention

Ending Child Sexual Abuse Web Conference Series

Text Chat Transcript

Web Conference

Unique Opportunities for Child Sexual Abuse Prevention: Learning from migrant farmworker communities

September 29, 2014

11 AM Pacific (2 PM Eastern)

Presenters

Kimber Nicoletti, MSW Founder and Director of Multicultural Efforts to End Sexual Assault (MESA) at Purdue University

Mily Trevino-Sauceda, Immigrant and Farmworker Women Advocate

Host

Joan Tabachniuk and Cordelia Anderson, Ms. Foundation

Leona Smith DiFaustino, PreventConnect Project California Coalition Against Sexual Assault

Participant names have been removed from this chat record, unless provided by the participant in text.

-
- To meet farmworker and Title X guidelines
  - anything and everything I can that I can pass along to direct service workers
  - I'm interested in learning about how preventing sexual abuse in migrant farmworker communities may relate to preventing sex or labor trafficking in migrant farmworker communities
  - We work with a significant migrant communities.

- I wanted to learn more about this issue.
- To learn culturally-relevant CSA prevention strategies
- Continuing education and awareness
- ditto
- I want to learn more on prevention.
- Learning about a program based in an antioppression framework!
- SueAnn from northern NJ
- Still beeping and dinging
- We're in a rural agricultural area.
- We have a large immigrant communities.
- Attending this webinar to understand prevention in a specific cultural context and with different resources
- I'm a Prevention Educator working in schools in rural Western Colorado
- My state has many rural areas and a large immigrant community, so I think this topic is extremely important.
- still dings dings
- Learn more on prevention to help pass this information along.
- To have a better grasp on information and activities that we will be working toward throughout our state
- Katherine Hargitt
- from Mongolia
- Tuning in from Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault
- north carolina
- Jody Althouse
- If you have questions during the presentation, just type them here and we will get to them during the Q&A. Thank you!
- Will the ppt be posted? Where?
- Tammie, the PPT will be posted at <http>
- i did not see the slide for the presentation.
- will be added to the website after the web conference
- LaQuela, I see that your hand is up. Do you have a question?
- I can't hear you
- language
- language; isolation
- Access to resources
- language

- social norms
- Lack of transportation to services
- Isolation
- Access to awareness and prevention trainings, access to survivor services
- language, cultural distrust of outsiders
- Resources for those who are abused
- lack of communication
- isolation, language, unaware of laws
- isolation
- mistrust of 'officials'
- transportation
- Fear of lost wages
- acces to service
- fear due to immigration status
- finances
- Cultural Taboo, one's own survivor status, fear of breaking up families, fear of manstream world imposing on one's way of life outside of CSA.
- Fear of deportation if discussed
- Due to the rural area, perhaps transportation to the services would be a barrier.
- Fear and mistrust.
- fear of being seen as a traitor to family /community
- Fear of outsiders judging their families or breaking their families apart
- Hello Brenda, I see that your hand is up, do you have a question?
- No. I thought the down arrow meant it was down.
- from Boston, MA
- I I was listening on having trouble with audio. Am now listening to webinar on phone.
- If you have questions, just type them here and we will get to them during the Q&A.
Thank you!
- Are efforts being made to advocate for preventative education in migrant communities?
- Have there been any efforts to involve community elders in prevention education and community organizing?
- I am inspired to help my own community develop strategies and determination to end child sexual abuse in our area.
- Is there any outreach done by advocates to these workers when they are in farm fields communities where they are at work
- Shout out to Promotoras!!! Power to the People!!!

- get in the community on a regular basis
- meeting with them in their own communities.
- Increasing community awareness of CSA issues.
- This works for me in my project to train promotoras in the state of Colorado to address self-defined goals and objectives of violence prevention and community education.
- listen to children when they tell and believe them. Don't blame them.
- Learn more about the farm worker communities in your area.
- Be there to support your children.
- Increasing awareness, educating and empowering those to come forward to help shed light on sexual abuse on children.
- Thank you mil veces. the work you do partnering with people in their own communities, changes lives. I am a testament to the power of promotora work to create a better quality of life and the magic of conscientization.