KM: I need all the help I can get when it comes to evaluation. The self study tool seems like a great idea that I can do on my own time.

TV: To view the Training Slide Deck: https://www.nsvrc.org/TrainingandCapacityBuildingSlideDeck

AKJ: @Karen Yes! Glad to hear it. I would be great to learn more about how you use it, what worked, what didn't, etc.

TV: To view the toolkit from TAASA: http://taasa.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/05/Activity-Based-Assessment-Toolkit.pdf

TV: @Julie, hi! Thank you for joining. If you'd like to download the slides, you can access them here: http://www.preventconnect.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/07/Peer-Learning-Forum-Evaluation-Toolkit-Increasing-capacity-to-evaluate-sexual-violence-prevention-work.pdf

SER: We have been using the rape myth acceptance for part of our evaluation.

MBN: Some of our local providers use Safe Dates or evaluations based on Bringing in the Bystander evaluation

AB: We've used the 40 developmental assets evaluation for some things from Search Institute for youth programming

RL: Green Dot Bystander Evaluation

KM: Pre/post, participatory, system, and community surveys

AM: We're using a lot of community-level measures to evaluate risk and protective factors --economic stability, norms, behavioral health etc.

CG: NCCASA Minimum Data Set for middle school and high schools

AB: Oh yeah.. and Green Dot has been awesome

EB: pre/post surveys, participatory, community impact surveys

KC: Campus Climate Surveys

JM: pre and post tests on Attitudes, Skills, and knowledge related to social norms

MBN: I would love to see climate surveys made for middle and high schools (valid and reliable, of course)

KM: How do we move our evaluation to the outer levels of the SEM?

AKJ: @Karen this is the million dollar question! Section 10 of the toolkit focuses on evaluation across the SEM including those outer levels. https://www.nsvrc.org/prevention/evaluation-toolkit/s10

KC: Mark, Montana has a Prevention Needs Assessment (PNA) survey that is conducted in 8th, 10th and 12th grade. I don't know if your state has a similar survey but it asks lots of questions related to risk and protective factors

KC: The survey is conducted by the Office of Public Instruction and we had to specially request the data since it is not usually shared with the public

MBN: Katie, thanks, we have a similar survey but it is more focused on health outcomes and risk behaviors, with a few risk and protective factors.

MBN: We'd be interested in seeing your survey, though, Katie!

TV: Text Chat Question: What other topics would you like to see added to the Toolkit? What areas are you feeling like you want to look at right now? What is peaking your interest, and what would be most useful right now?

TC: As they're available, it would be really great/useful to have some case studies of how people have done evaluation at outer levels of SEM

KC: Maybe you could work with them to add in a few questions that are SV prevention related

JM: This is a lot of great resources, I need to look it over more, but I am interested in Outcomes and indicators. Also exploring using pictures and more interactive ways to collect data is fascinating to me.

MR: It would be helpful to include options for perpetration behavior measures via a single question or two questions- we often don't have room on our state-level surveys for an entire scale like the Rape-myth acceptance scale.

RL: What are some out-of-the-box sources of data where there is a dearth of resources/data?

RL: Not needing an answer now, just an area for the toolkit to expand.

AKJ: Thanks, Ryan!

SER: In Missouri we have a network for our colleges and universities and they collect health data from students each year and by partnering with them, they have started adding questions about SV and DV. It's a great source of data for our campus work.

MR: One of our grantees has been asking us for resources around environmental change measures, so including any resources around that would be great!

TC: Excited about this resource!

TV: Text Chat Question: How do you think you will use the Toolkit for capacity building?

MR: We recently sent out the link to the toolkit to our statewide prevention network! and will share it at meetings!

SER: I really like the self-guided nature of the toolkit and I will definitely be exploring it more and sharing it with our state coalition.

AKJ: @Marissa nice!

KM: The link in the toolkit for the TriEthnic Center guidebook is not valid. :(

TV: @Sarah, same here on liking the self-guided nature! And thank you for sharing, we're so excited to spread this toolkit to more

MBN: Thanks; this is a great resource!

JM: There will be a session at NSAC on the toolkit, correct?

TV: prevention@nsvrc.org slaskey@nsvrc.org www.nsvrc.org/evaluation-toolkit

SL: Thanks for joining us today!

JM: Great I will see you at the RPE Leadership Team meeting!

SL: Can't wait! See many of you in August!

TV: Thank you everyone, and thank you Sally for a great tour of the NSVRC Evaluation Toolkit!

MR: Thanks!

JM: Thanks Ashleigh, Tori and all! See you in California!

JTC: Thanks! Can't wait to spend time with the toolkit!
