NRCDV STANDS.

WE STAND with individuals and groups who have been targeted, degraded, threatened, or marginalized because they are Native Americans, people of color, immigrants, women, Muslims, LGBTQ, or people with disabilities.

WE STAND against white supremacy, racism, misogyny, anti-Semitism, homophobia, transphobia, xenophobia, and all other forms of structural oppression.

WE STAND with survivors of domestic and sexual violence, especially those most vulnerable and with limited access to services and protection.

WE STAND together in celebration of the rich diversity of people in this country and the vitality and strength they bring to our communities and society.

WE STAND with those who embrace self care and community connection as necessary and powerful for social change.

WE STAND with other activists and organizations who continue to work passionately for gender, racial, economic, and social justice for ALL.

PREVENTION

BEYOND THE BINARY

Tuesday, December 17

11 AM PST | 2 PM EST

PreventConnect is a national project of the California Coalition Against Sexual Assault sponsored by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The views and information provided in this web conference do not necessarily represent the official views of the U.S. government, CDC or CALCASA.

Objectives

- ▶ Describe inclusive practices that promote LGBTQ+ acceptance and safety
- ▶ Identify strategies that prevent violence against LGBTQ+ people and communities
- ▶ Engage in a discussion about the strengths and opportunities within the field of sexual and intimate partner violence prevention to advance primary prevention by and for LGBTQ+ communities

Past web conferences

- ▶ Harmful Gender Norms: Moving beyond binary and heteronormative approaches to preventing violence

The screenshot shows a web conference interface. On the left, there is a video player with a small video feed of a man. Below the video is a feedback form with 'Yes' and 'No' buttons, and a chat window with several messages. At the bottom left, there is a table of contents for the presentation.

Slide	Time
Slide 06	00:00
Slide 9 - Objectives	00:28
Slide 10 - Pronouns	00:50
Slide 11	01:36
Slide 12 - About the Res.	02:43

The main content is a video player showing a slide titled "Cisgender 101 - Understanding Cisgenderism". The slide has a green background and features illustrations of a yellow male figure and a pink female figure. The text on the slide includes:

What is a "Cisgender" Person?

A cisgender person is someone who believes their gender identity matches the one they were assigned at birth. They were born this way and did not choose it!

Cisgender man
Identifies as male
Usually has a penis
Usually has a vagina

Cisgender woman
Identifies as female
Usually has a vagina
Usually has a penis

Did you know...?
Cisgender people aren't always straight - many cisgender people identify as gay, lesbian, or even bisexual!

A Few National Organizations

- Anti-Violence Project
- Northwest Network
- GLSEN
- FORGE
- The Network/La Red

The Anti-Violence Project logo is a circular orange ring with the text 'ANTI-VIOLENCE PROJECT' inside. The Northwest Network logo features a pink square with the text 'The Northwest Network of GL, Trans, Lesbian & Gay survivors of abuse' and the phone number '206 568 7777' and website 'nwnetwork.org'. The GLSEN logo consists of the word 'GLSEN' in large grey letters with a yellow 'E', and 'GAY, LESBIAN & STRAIGHT EDUCATION NETWORK' in smaller text below. The Network/La Red logo features the text 'the Network LaRed' with a rainbow horizontal bar underneath.

Past web conferences

- ▶ Partners in Prevention: Connecting sexual violence prevention and LGBTQ-inclusive campus culture

The screenshot shows a video player interface. On the left, there is a video thumbnail for 'Partners in Prevention' with the CALCASA logo. Below the thumbnail are sections for 'Feedback' (with options A, B, C, D), 'Chat' (with a URL), and 'Index' (listing 'Partners in Prevention' with sub-slides: 'Slide 07', 'Slide 8 - Learning Obj...', and 'Slide 9 - Audience Poll'). The main video area displays a slide titled 'Shared risk factors' with a rainbow umbrella graphic. The slide content includes a bullet point: 'Links between homophobic teasing and sexual harassment and sexual violence' and a quote: '“A pathway may exist starting in early middle school, where traditional bullying perpetration transforms into more gendered harassment and aggressive behavior in the form of homophobic teasing and sexual harassment. We suspect that, according to the bully-SV pathway, as adolescents who perpetrate traditional bullying mature, they increase their use of homophobic epithets. We hypothesized that as these bullies engage in more interactions with opposite-gender peers, they are more likely to perpetrate SV.” (Espelaga et al., 2012)'. A play button is overlaid on the slide. In the top right corner of the video player, there are icons for 'Watch later' and 'Share'. The 'iLinc' logo is at the bottom left of the video player, and a 'PC' logo is at the bottom right.

Adapting Evidence-Based Materials

“I always trained implementers to once-per-session provide simple comments like ‘We know not all relationships are just one boy and one girl – sometimes they have two boys, two girls, or people who don’t identify as either a boy or girl’ and I would also share local data about how rates of [teen dating violence] are higher for LGBTQ+ youth because of homophobia that leads to secrecy and isolation. I emphasized that these higher rates are not attributable to anything wrong with LGBTQ+ people, but that isolation and judgment increase risks of TDV for all people, and uniquely so for LGBTQ+ youth.”

Social-Ecological Model: A Framework for Prevention

Societal

- Impact of oppression- biphobia, homophobia, transphobia- on our lived experiences, relationship & communities
- Lack of civil legal protections around anti-discrimination, relationship recognition, parenting, etc.

*Community*

- Lack of role-models of loving, equitable LGBTQ families & relationships
- Consequences of “coming out” – isolation, lack of access to family & community of origin
- Exclusion of experiences of LGBTQ survivors from the mainstream narrative of domestic violence
- Silence around DV & SA within LGBTQ communities

Relationship

- Different cultural experiences around dating and sexuality
- Lack of developmentally appropriate opportunities to express romantic/sexual desire; impacts of social and cultural isolation

Individual

- Lack of access to developmentally appropriate education and support around sex, sexuality, healthy relationships and violence

*Community*

- Lack of role-models of loving, equitable LGBTQ families & relationships
- Consequences of “coming out” – isolation, lack of access to family & community of origin
- Exclusion of experiences of LGBTQ survivors from the mainstream narrative of domestic violence
- Silence around DV & SA within LGBTQ communities

Principles of Community Engagement

1. Affirm survivor self-determination
2. Bring a positive vision
3. Engagement before opposition
4. Praxis
5. Be explicit about your values
6. Be in it for the long haul

Affirm Survivor Self-Determination

What does this look on an individual level?

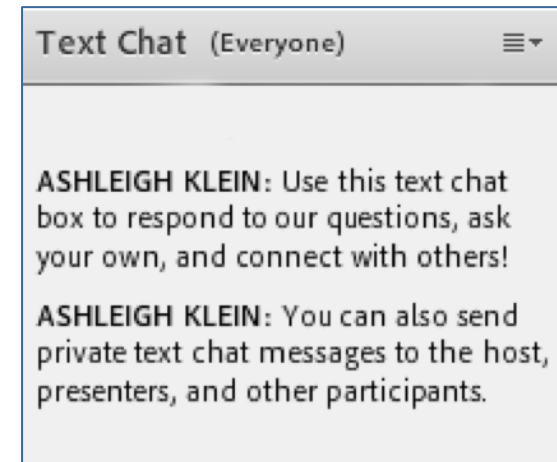

What could this look like on a community level?

(share your ideas in the chat!)

What does affirming survivor self-determination look like on a community-level?

Text Chat Question

Use the Text Chat feature to answer the question.

Bring a Positive Vision

Know what you want to build,
Not just what you want to end!

LGBTQ relationships have been seen by the mainstream as inherently wrong, bad, perverted, disgusting, and other negative things.

Bringing a positive vision can build positive self-image and help destroy negative stereotypes!

Engagement before Opposition

How can we go TOWARDS the challenges that our communities face, rather than turning the other way?

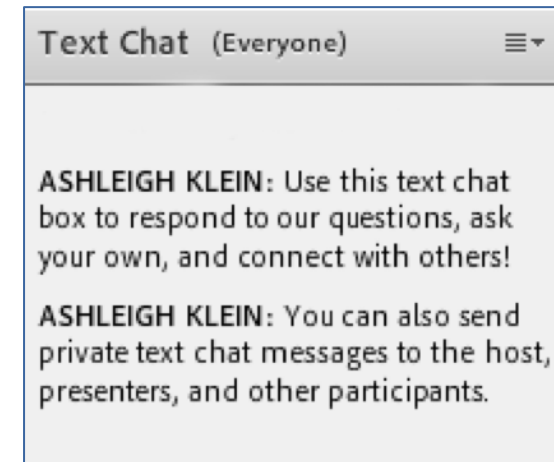

We can't do it all, but where can we find the "yes" when responding to community requests?

What are examples of ways you have innovatively thought about prevention so you can expand community partnerships and find the “yes” in community requests?

Text Chat Question

Use the Text Chat feature to answer the question.

Praxis

Try something,

Observe what happens,

Reflect on what happened,

Incorporate what you learned,

Try the next thing!

Be explicit about your values

Agency

Grace

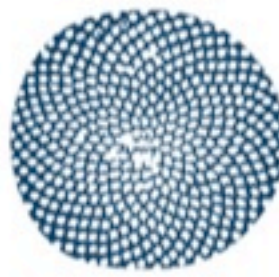

Community

Liberation

Integrity

Intentionality

NWN VALUES STATEMENT
HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/NWNVALUES

Be in it for the long haul

It can take a while for things to take off! (for example, Rainier Beach High School's GSA)

Use strategies that are sustainable for the whole community

(Build it up, don't burn it down.)

A note on “By and For”

Our ability to do effective prevention work with LGBTQ individuals and communities is directly linked to:

- our knowledge of the strengths, challenges, and barriers faced by these communities,
- the trust and collaboration we create with LGBTQ community partners,
- and an active practice of not reinforcing stereotypes or misinformation about LGBTQ relationships and communities.

Do not duplicate without permission - Northwest Network (c) 2019

Working together, "by and for" orgs and regional orgs can build power to meet survivors' needs AND change the structural determinants of violence.

Do not duplicate without permission - Northwest Network (c) 2019

Key take-aways

1. Community engagement can be prevention work!

2. Affirm survivor self-determination

3. Bring a positive vision

4. Engagement before opposition

5. Praxis (try, observe, reflect, and try again!!)

6. Be explicit about your values

7. Be in it for the long haul

8. We need both by-and-for LGBTQ orgs AND mainstream orgs to do this work together.

9. There are no cookie-cutter solutions. Every community is different!

Serving Male-Identified Survivors of Intimate Partner Violence

Historically, domestic violence programs were built from the women's liberation movement of the 1970s to address the needs of female survivors. Over time, it has become clear that addressing male survivors' needs requires a different approach, one that takes into account the unique experiences of men, including their roles in society, their relationships with women, and their experiences with violence and oppression.

7% Of the 13 million survivors served by Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (FVPSA) funded programs in 2017, we know that almost 7% are male-identified survivors.

Providing services to male-identified survivors is not only required by law, it is the ethical and right thing to do.

The Family Violence Prevention and Services Act Fund supports programs that meet the unique needs of male-identified survivors, including emergency housing, support groups, and referrals to other essential services.

Ask yourself...

- What do you think about male victims of IPV? Who comes to mind?
- What do you know about gender-inclusive services? How can you do better?
- What is your organizational culture regarding male-identified victims of domestic violence?
- What message would you like an individual to be identified as a survivor to receive from your organization?
