thebodyisnotanapology We appreciate @hafsakhizer_art's discussion countering the common adage "bloom where you're planted". What would it look like for the soil you're in to actually provide the nutrients and sustenance you require and desire? 🌱 I have an Unpopular opinion on this phrase - I understand the wisdom in making peace with things you can't control but I also think this is a very damaging mindset.

The glorification of emotional martyrdom that comes from accepting your life conditions with patience is overrated.

You don't know When to make the shift between being patient in your
